About Capesso AML

Staying compliant with financial regulations is becoming more and more challenging. Sanction lists evolve every day with individuals, entities, and objects being removed and added constantly. On top of that, sanctioning bodies are increasing, as we see more and more countries issuing their own sanction lists and having definitions of PEPs. Regulations designed for protecting businesses from high-risk customers like anti-money laundering (AML), know your customer (KYC) and counter-terrorist financing (CTF) are our area of expertise. We help businesses to stay compliant with simple products that reduce the complexity of the regulatory environment.

Capesso AML three core values:

- Relentless compliance: We support you with AML, KYC and CTF obligations.
- Full transparency: We are fully transparent about our sources.
- Absolute privacy: Your privacy is our highest priority.
